Project Management Made Simple: Board Member or Property Manager? Tools to Turn Renovation Frustrations into Successful Outcomes!

Location: South Building

Date: Nov 28, 2012

Start: 9:00 AM

End: 10:15 AM

Description:

Organized by Association of Condominium Managers of Ontario (ACMO)

Successful execution relies on open communication between all stake holders. This seminar will look at the overall vision and examine the entire renovation process. It will address issues, questions and concerns around refurbishments and tips on how to solve them. The first step to success is aligning the goal; come and learn how to do this and take away key tools and techniques to make your next refurbishment process simple, smooth and stress free.

Take away tools will include:

- A road-map on how to navigate through the refurbishment process
- A questionnaire template for Property Managers addressing their Board Members
- A check-list of questions that Board Members should consider asking their designer

This session is eligible for 1 OAA ConEd learning hour and 0.1 IDCEC CEU.
